

2003 U.S. Grand National Watercross Championships

Joins Sea-Doo Bounty Contingency Level 1 Program

June 25, 2003

The 2003 U.S. Grand National Watercross Championships is pleased to announce it is joining the Sea-Doo Bounty Contingency Level 1 Program. Now the Top Riders in the country will have the opportunity to receive Monetary Awards for Top Performances on the 2003

Sea – Doo Contingency Program

U.S. Grand National Watercross Championship Series. Sea-Doo, the World's most Popular Personal Watercraft, continues to support Personal Watercraft Racing at the Regional Level year after year. Both Sea-Doo, and the 2003 U.S. Grand National Watercross Championships are committed to improving the Quality of Personal Watercraft Racing at the Regional, and National Levels. Year after year, it pays to Ride a Sea-Doo.

Bombardier continues the 11-year tradition of rewarding those who successfully compete aboard Sea-Doo® watercraft with the Sea-Doo Bounty racing contingency program for grass-root racers. After a revamping of the racing support program in 2002, the Sea-Doo Bounty program reinvigorated racer enthusiasm by offering Sea-Doo racers finishing on the podium additional opportunities to win cash prizes. The Sea-Doo Bounty is by far the most all-encompassing racer support program in the industry.

'03 Sea-Doo Bounty Grand Prize

The Sea-Doo Bounty program is designed to open the opportunity of winning extra money to a unlimited amount of Sea-Doo watercraft racers. Forty-eight racers in North America received financial support from Bombardier in 2002 through the Sea-Doo Bounty program. The participants were then eligible to qualify for an opportunity to compete for a big piece of the "Bounty" at the World Finals in Lake Havasu, AZ last October.

Sea-Doo – 2002 Can-Am Cup 800 Class Champion

Twelve of the top money winners from 2002 were invited to compete in a special exhibition race at the World Finals with the winner taking home the Sea-Doo Bounty Treasure Chest, which included a brand new Bombardier® Rally™ ATV. Stuart Rasmussen capped his championship 2002 season off by riding his stock Sea-Doo XP™ to a convincing win to claim the top prize. The 2003 Sea-Doo Bounty will again be offering a similar opportunity this year for those Sea-Doo watercraft mounted racers finishing near the top of the standings by season's end.

The 2003 season sees the return of this popular program; a program designed to act as an Open Sponsorship. ALL Sea-Doo racers competing in the qualifying classes have the opportunity to receive reward monies from Bombardier. No sponsorship proposals, no contracts, no hassles, and no favoritism, it's open and equal to everybody. The Sea-Doo Bounty program is as easy as the racer slapping a Sea-Doo logo on his or her Sea-Doo watercraft, going to the track, and finishing in the front of the field - which is common for most Sea-Doo watercraft racers.

The Sea-Doo Bounty is about rewarding superior performance. An attribute built into every Sea-Doo watercraft and perfectly exemplified the 185 horsepower 2003 Sea-Doo GTX† 4-TEC™ Supercharged watercraft. With the recent inclusion of four-stroke powered watercraft in the 2003 IJSBA (International Jet Sport Boating Association) rulebook, racetracks around the world will see the new era of watercraft taking to the starting lines.

Special bonus payouts will be offered to racers competing on the new GTX† 4-TEC and GTX† 4-TEC Supercharged, leading to a unique opportunity to compete for the 2003 Sea-Doo Bounty Treasure Chest at the World Finals in Lake Havasu, AZ in mid-October.

Bombardier will also be supporting the watercraft racing community through financial sponsorships to nearly a dozen regional race event promoters. The sponsorships awarded to these race promoters allow them to organize and produce more high quality events and races that ultimately benefit the race community.

Register with your local race promoter and stay tuned for more "Supercharged" information on the Sea-Doo Bounty on the Sea-Doo Today section at www.sea-doo.com. To learn more about watercraft racing and how to contact your local race promoter visit www.ijsba.com. The Sea-Doo Bounty Contingency Level 1 Program will be in effect for Rounds 3 & 4 of the 2003 U.S. Grand National Watercross Championships at Pontiac, Michigan.
